EEB WAS INCLUDED BY THIRD YEAR IN A ROW IN THE DOW JONES SUSTAINABILITY INDEX - DJSI

- EEB, head of Grupo Energía de Bogotá, went up five points over the previous year, ranking between the best companies around the world in sustainability.
- Dow Jones is the most recognized sustainability index at an international level. It analyses the performance of companies that are leaders in social, economic and environmental aspects.

Bogota, September 11 2014. EEB, head of Grupo Energía de Bogotá -GEB- is pleased to report that it was included today for third year in a row, in the DOW JONES SUSTAINABILITY INDEX -DJSI- in emerging markets.

In this opportunity, EEB went up five points over the previous year, going from 66 points in 2013 to 71 points in 2014. This result locates the company between the best companies of the world in social, economic and environmental aspects.

Dow Jones is the most recognized sustainability index at an international level and constitutes a reference point for those investors who integrate sustainability guidelines within their investment portfolios drivers. DJSI also provides an effective engagement platform for companies wanting to adopt best practices in sustainability.

EEB was included for the first time in this index in 2012 and since then has been included again year after year. To be included or ratified in this index, companies must continuously increase their efforts and initiatives in sustainability for the benefit of all of their stakeholders.

Regarding this fact, Sandra Stella Fonseca Arenas, EEB's CEO, said that "this acknowledgement shows that we are developing our business at the level of the best world practices. Being part of this index during three years in a row reflects the consistency of our policies and the success of our management. Within the variables we are tested, we have important issues such as our corporate governance scheme, anti-corruption codes, biodiversity protection initiatives, labor policies we apply, among others".

Mrs. Fonseca concluded by stating that "more than recognition, this is a challenge, a company commitment and a confirmation that we are on the right track. I thank our coworkers for their constant effort".

EEB congratulates and recognizes the efforts made by Almacenes Éxito, Banco Davivienda, Bancolombia, Cementos Argos, Ecopetrol, Grupo de Inversiones Suramericana, Grupo Nutresa, ISAGEN and Grupo Argos, companies also included in the index and with whom we continue to build country.

About Grupo Energía de Bogotá

Grupo Energía de Bogotá (GEB) is the leading corporation in the Colombian power sector. Through EEB, GEB transports electricity to the most significant markets in terms of demand and size in the country, in addition to controlling the largest natural gas transportation company in Colombia, TGI S.A.
